MISC NAVIGATES TO THE TOP AT INSTITUTIONAL INVESTOR CORPORATE AWARDS 2020

MISC Berhad (MISC) makes it to the top with three awards at the 10th Annual Poll for Alpha Southeast Asia's Institutional Investor Corporate Awards 2020. MISC clinched the No 1 spot as 2020's winner for the following two categories -"Most Organised Investor Relations" and "Most Consistent Dividend Policy" and maintained its position as the second runner-up in the "Strongest Adherence to Corporate Governance" category. All three awards won in 2020 are MISC's second consecutive win for the categories mentioned above.

President/Group Chief Executive Officer of MISC, Mr Yee Yang Chien said, "We are extremely pleased and humbled that our efforts and commitment to corporate excellence are recognised again this year. We thank all investors and analysts for the trust and support placed in us. These recognitions demonstrate our best practices in investor relations, our fervent commitment in upholding shareholders' interest and the solid embodiment of corporate governance across the MISC Group. We will continue to actively engage in corporate stewardship and maintain our focus on building long-term value for our stakeholders across the Group."

The Alpha Southeast Asia's Annual Poll for the Institutional Investor Awards identifies the region's well-managed companies in various areas from financial management to investor relations. A poll was organised by the publication- Alpha Southeast Asia from late-March 2020 until early July 2020, with votes collected from investors and analysts across the region as well as in the United States and Europe to select the winners.
